History of the Range

- Planning started in the early 1990s
- FFCR is a spinoff of Riley County Fish & Game Association
- Range site was selected through cooperation with the Army Corps of Engineers and Kansas Department of Wildlife and Parks
- Funding to construct the Range came from monies generated by the Pittman-Robertson Act, a Federal tax on sporting goods including firearms, ammunition, and archery equipment
- The Range opened in September 2002
- Electricity was made available to the Range by the Westar Green Team in 2007

Volunteers

- The Range is operated by volunteers
- Each Range has NRA Certified Range Safety Officers working when the Range is operational
- Our Range would not be open without all of our volunteers
